relationships matter
GOD • ONE ANOTHER • WORLD

From the desk of Pastor Mark...

Dear Saints,

This time is the perfect time to begin our New Year's resolutions! But the average American gives up on at least one resolution before January is even done! That's pretty grim!

I confess I'm not great at keeping resolutions either. But I still try every year to come up with something I can do that will help me out.

To get started, here is a list of five from last year's most common New Year's Resolutions:

1. Exercise more/Lose weight/Get healthier
2. Save more money/Spend less money
3. Spend more time with family and friends
4. Travel more
5. Read more

Pretty good list. Lots of good choices. Any of these might really help you out. But there are a few missing...what about resolutions that would help you work on your relationship with God? Here are a few suggested resolutions that might be in order:

1. Read just ONE PAGE in the Bible every day. Start easy...something like the Psalms or one of the Gospels (I recommend Mark or Luke). And unless you are a 17th century English scholar, I would recommend a newer translation than the King James Version.
2. Buy a devotional, read it each day, and begin a regular prayer routine.
3. Speaking of praying, do so with your children or your grandchildren. It makes a wonderful part of a bedtime routine. Include your spouse too.
4. Volunteer in church. Investigate what you might want to do. Ask questions. Find just one thing to try. Then GO!
5. Come to church on a regular basis. (This doesn't mean every single Sunday, although we LOVE seeing you!). Just a regular basis.

One more suggestion: keep your resolution to yourself. Try achieving it without telling anyone at first. Later, when you've been doing it for a while, then consider sharing it. See what reactions you get.

But no matter what you choose, work to make yourself the best version you can. God didn't make you to stay the same. He wants you to be your best so you can serve him better. Amen!

Missions of the Month

The Mission of the Month for January is Comunidades Unidas Pro Salud (CUPS). CUPS is a Christian ministry founded in 1989 to assist communities in northeastern Mexico and the Rio Grande Valley to improve health and education, to foster a sense of community, and to provide volunteers opportunities to serve and be served.

During the month of January, our church will be collecting the following items for CUPS:

- Items for elderly
(Such as adult diapers, canes, walkers, crutches, bedside commodes, and wheelchairs)
- School supplies
(Such as pencils, pens, crayons, dry erase markers, small scissors, spiral notebooks, construction paper, and story books in Spanish and English)
- Working Laptops

All the above items can be left in the bins outside of the church office. Nina Rach, a CUPS Board Member, will faithfully pick up these supplies and deliver them to CUPS in McAllen.

January Mission Updates & Opportunities

Fairbees Square Dance Toy Collection – In December, once again, the Fairbees Square Dance group collected toys for Memorial Assistance Ministries (MAM). Patti and Steve Nanney took over a carload of toys for the MAM toy drive. Thank you, Fairbees Square Dance Group! Don't forget, they welcome all of you to join them for square dancing each Thursday evening at 6pm.

Angel Tree Prison Ministry Follow-up – This year we provided Christmas cheer for 21 children within 9 families. Each child received 2 Christmas gifts from their incarcerated parent, and school supplies. In addition, each family also received an overflowing food basket for the entire family to share. Thank you also to all those who made deliveries to all the receiving families. And many thanks to Linda Crawford for organizing all the food for these families.

November 30th Annual Seafarers Packing and Wrapping Party – 131 boxes were filled to the brim and wrapped up in Christmas paper. Lu, Jim, and Donald then delivered them to the Seafarer's Center at the Port of Houston. This is truly a church-wide project that cannot happen without the whole congregation. All the filler must be collected, organized, and then a very large number of us gathered for breakfast (thanks Liz Earnest and Fellowship Committee), and a huge assembly line of packing and wrapping. It was great to see so many come out to help!

SBPC Hot Meals on Weekends – The 4th Saturday of each month we look for individuals to deliver meals to shut-ins. We have 2 routes with about 14 people on each route, so we usually need a total of 4 volunteers each month. Please contact Lu Taylor if you are interested in volunteering to deliver meals one month.

Thank you Spring Branch Presbyterian for 25 years of caring for our children!

Merry Christmas from all of us at Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services.

The artwork shows a snowy path beneath shimmering northern lights. Vera, 17, was inspired by a trip to her Grandma's house when she created it. She loves how the gloomy sky lights up the snow, a scene that makes her feel calm and peaceful, as if stepping into a world full of wonder. Vera's artwork reminds us that Christmas is a season of stillness, awe, and hope. At PCHAS, we see this same joy in children who discover beauty in the small moments of the season. May this Christmas also remind you of the hope your support brings to so many lives.

Wishing you peace, love, and happiness this holiday season.
